

George V. Hogan, AIA, Architect

Resume

June 12, 1998

Born April 21, 1914 Honolulu, Hawaii

Education

Liliuokalani & Aliiolani Elementary Schools Mc Kinley High school
Universities

Univ. of Hawaii '31-'32 Liberal Arts

Univ. of Washington '32-'35-Architecture

Harvard Graduate School of Design '40-'41

Architectural registration exam--passed 1939

Registered Architect #325 Hawaii 1940

Service--US Corps of Engineers 4 years Hawaii, Sipan, Tinian
Iwo Jima returned Oct. 1945

Professional Experience

- '36-'38 Apprentice 6 months Herbert Cayton AIA. Then Cain & Cain & Awana, Engineers Theaters and commercial bldgs.
- '39-'40 Partnership with Albert E. Ives AIA Residences.
- '41-'45 WW-II See above.
- '46-'47 George V Hogan, AIA Residences
- '47-'55 Partnership Ives & Hogan, Architects. Residences, Juvenile Detention Home, Pineapple Research Institute
- '55-'58 George V Hogan, Architect Residences Church
- '58-'63 George V Hogan, Architect in joint practice with Donald D Chapman, Architect Residences, inter. school, commercial work.
- '63-'66 Partnership Hogan & Chapman, Architects. Schools, Hamilton Library U of H, Commercial buildings. Staff 12-18
- '66-'79 Hogan, Chapman, Cobeen, Weitz & Assoc everything; except institutional & medical work. Hotels on islands of Hawaii, Maui, Oahu and Kauai, Pan Am (American Savings) Building Kapiolani Blvd. Mott-Smith Lani Loa Apartment 34 stories with 2 levels of parking, Baptist Academy Nuuanu, Kaahumanu Shopping, Kahului, Maui; Windward Mall Kaneohe, Oahu; Ward Center, Ala Moana Blvd, Stouffer's Wailea Beach Hotel; Sheraton Waikaloa. Hawaii Staff 22-34

April 21, 1979

Retired from that firm.